Dear Parents,

We have enjoyed a flurry of articles in the news recently. Poetry winner Basti has been in the Journal, Blackmore Vale and Village Voice. Our "Extra Mile" fund raiser for Julia's House has been in the Valley News and our Chinese Theme day has been reported.

Parents' evening is on the Tuesday and Wednesday after half term; if you have not booked a slot please contact the office on Monday to see if any places are still available.

We had a very enjoyable mini football tournament this week. Elm class fielded teams against Tisbury St Johns and against Sycamore class. We plan to hold a rematch on Thursday 22 February, with Elm class 'A' team playing Tisbury, and Sycamore fielding a team against a Year Two/Three Tisbury Team.

Enjoy the half term and we look forward to seeing you all rested and well after the half term break.

Yours,

Mr Smith

No clubs

In the week after half term, there will not be any after school clubs. Things go back to normal in the week commencing 26th February, with one exception Art Club which will not run on 2nd March. However, due to Art Club's popularity we are planning to run two sessions each week. We will run a session for younger pupils on Thursday, 3-4pm, and Friday for older pupils, 3-4pm. If the session change is a problem, please let us know as the groups are based on providing a better experience for pupils as well but we are flexible.
